Events

Itihaas has drawn on its strengths to expand its portfolio of offerings. A step further from its catering venture, it now offers the ultimate exotic yet sophisticated Indian experience to any special event.

We understand that most professional couples are extremely busy and prefer a one-stop wedding/ event shop to be able to deal with all their needs. At Itihaas, being in the business of dream weddings means we are able to leverage our contact book to help organise all of this for you at a reasonable added price.

Itihaas offers a wide variety of decor to suit every budget – from mandaps to walima & nikkah stages, to designer evening wedding reception decor.

Weddings at Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Each of our three event suites are licensed for civil ceremonies and, though each offers a different experience, you can be sure that your wedding will take place in the most stunning and serene of settings, whichever space you choose.

During the warmer months, you can enjoy a picture-perfect al fresco drinks reception on the external terraces which overlook the beautifully landscaped setting. Whatever the weather, you could not ask for a more stunning backdrop for your wedding photography.

We offer a "Love Birds" wedding package, designed to make everything as simple as possible, but we are equally happy to tailor your wedding to your exact requirements. You may like to view the package as a starting point from which we can build your own dream day, just for you.

No matter how you celebrate your wedding at Birmingham Botanical Gardens, you will be swept away by the romance and tranquillity of your surroundings and delighted with a level of service that exceeds your every expectation.
